STAT

Since we wrote to you on 10 September, Agency officials have concluded an extensive review of our personnel requirements in various components of the Agency in an effort to locate a position in line with your excellent qualifications. Unfortunately, they have found no way in which your background and experience can be effectively utilized at this time.

Your continued interest in working with this organization is very much appreciated and we are indeed sorry our response could not be more favorable. Should an appropriate opening develop at some future date, we shall contact you.

Sincerely,

Signed

E. D. Echols
Director of Personnel
